

Perfectly shaped Mount Mayon is probably the main reason to come in Balay de la Rama.

Mount Mayon

Bulkang Magayon

Mount Mayon is an active volcano which rises to 2462m. Renowned for his perfect shape, he can be seen from any single corner in Bicol.

Local folkore refers to Bulkang Magayon « Beautiful Volcano », after the legendary heroine Daragang Magayon , « the beautiful lady »

This no sleeping beauty, is one of the most dangerous volcanoes in the world and closely monitor by philvolcs, the national volcanologist institute of the philippines. No later than 2006, 1500 bicolano lost their life in the slope of the volcano due to lahar flow.

Climbing Mount Mayon

The best time to climb Mount Mayon will be between February to April. Climbing the Mount Mayon is highly depending of the weather condition and volcano activity.

Visit our tour & Activities for more details about Mount Mayon trekking conditions.

Cagsawa Ruins

18th century Cagsawa ruins

Cagsawa Ruins is another popular destinations in Bicol. The ruins are the remnants of an 18th century Fransiscan Church, built in 1724. Twelve hundred people who took refuge there during 1814's violent eruption were buried alive. After the eruption, a new church was erected on hill overlooking the area, Daraga Church.

Discover Cagsawa Area

Balay de la Rama is only at a walking distance from the ruins. Trekking paths have been developed by Balay de la Rama and are exclusive for our guests. Out of the overcrouded attraction, those several treks will give you the chance to learn a bit more of bicolano lifestyle. Explore an authentic organic coconut plantation, Bet on a traditional coq fight, Enjoy the uniqueness of a local rice paddy...

Visit our tour & Activities for more details